

Healthy Hoops® Virtual Professional Development Series

AmeriHealth Caritas Partnership is excited to present a series of free one-hour virtual professional development and informational workshops.

Nurses continuing education course

Highlighting the key components of national and global asthma guidelines
Audience: Nurses, respiratory therapists, allied health professionals

Asthma in the School — School faculty and general workshop

Understanding the effects asthma and obesity can have on school-age children
Audience: School faculty and general staff

Myths and Misconceptions of Playing Sports With Asthma — Coaches workshop

Encouraging school-age children with asthma to participate more fully in gym classes and organized sports programs
Audience: Physical education and health staff, athletic directors, and coaches

Asthma in Child Care Centers — Child care staff professional training

Detecting warning signs of escalating respiratory issues when caring for young children
Audience: Child care professionals

To view available sessions and register for the series, visit:
<https://amerihealthcaritaspartnership.eventbrite.com/>

 @amerihealthcaritaspartnership

#AskHealthyHoops to send in questions ahead of time